

THOMAS MITCHELL PRIMARY SCHOOL

4BS EXCURSION COMMUNITY WALK

2nd March, 2017

Introduction/Links to Curriculum:

As part of Term One's Integrated Studies unit, Civics and Citizenship, Year 4 students will be participating in a walk to explore the facilities and services provided by their local community. Students will be visiting the Endeavour Hills Shopping Centre, Endeavour Hills Library, Endeavour Hills Leisure Centre as well as viewing the Terrace Shopping Centre and Raymond McMahon Medical Centre. Students will walk to the Endeavour Hills Skate Park and use this as a central meeting point, where they will eat snack and lunch.

After returning to school, students will receive a talk from a few members of the local CFA (Country Fire Authority). These firefighters will give students a presentation about their important role in our local community.

The following day, Friday 17th March, students will receive a visit from two members of the Endeavour Hills Police Station. They will learn about their role in the community and what it means to be a good citizen.
